Philippians 4:4-7

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice!

Let your gentle spirit be known to all men. The Lord is near.

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

This passage encourages us to give regularly, individually and proportionately, back to God.

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen...
And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who seek Him.
This is our memory verse—Heb. 11:1,6
