

Sunday, February 9, 2025

GENERATIONS

Generations
A Wife for My Son
Genesis 24

Four Types

1.

2.

3.

4.

Sunday, February 9, 2025

Study Guide

For the week of February 9, 2025

(Questions and Scriptures for further study)

Please read Genesis 24:1-4. What did Abraham want to obtain for his son Isaac?

Whom did he send to find her?

From what people did he want a wife for Isaac and from whom did he not want her to be?

What can we learn from Abraham's concern about a proper wife for his son?

Read Genesis 24:5-11. What did Abraham make his servant do to assure he would follow Abraham's wishes, and what did Abraham say God would do to help the servant?

If the girl the servant found would not agree to marry Isaac, what was the servant to do and what was he not to do?

What provisions did the servant make for his journey, and to where did he travel?

Read Genesis 24:12-21. When he arrived, what did the servant do first to assure the success of his mission, and what lesson can we learn?

Describe the method the servant decided to use to identify the correct woman as a wife for Isaac. Why was this a good plan?

Sunday, February 9, 2025

Who was the woman who met the servant's criteria?

Describe her, and tell how she was related to Abraham?

Read Genesis 24:22-51. What gifts did the servant give her, and what did he ask her?

What did he do to express his appreciation to God?

Who was Rebekah's brother?

What hospitality did he show the servant?

What did the servant say to Rebekah's family? How did they respond?

Read Genesis 24:52-67. Next day, the servant wanted to take Rebekah and leave, but what request did her family make, and who decided the matter?

In what ways does the story show that Rebekah's family shared Abraham's faith in the true God?

Describe the meeting between Isaac and Rebekah, and describe how Isaac felt about Rebekah.

Based on this whole story, tell what good qualities Rebekah had that would make her a good wife for Isaac. Think carefully and identify several characteristics.

What personal needs has the Holy Spirit exposed during this study? How can we pray with you about those needs?

Consider memorizing
Psalm 91:15.

Pastor Jake Presley